Hi Members & Friends

There are 2 exciting activities in Aug & Sep. National Day High Tea on 15.08.09 and Silver Jubilee on 26.09.09, SCOT's 25th Birthday. Tickets for both events will be sold at subsidized rate and we hope for your continued support & attendance.

We are looking for prize sponsors for Silver Jubilee Raffle Draw; the sales proceed will fund SCOT's Chiang Rai School Community Projects (we are now thinking to build the badly needed Male Teachers' Quarter for Baan Huai Khu School which we just visited). If you have any to donate for our Jubilee Dinner, do drop us a line ok ☺☺☺.

The on-going economic downturn have created reduced membership for SCOT, we had 35 non-renewals including those who need to 'balek kampong' due to company's belt-tightening.

With H1N1 on High Alert, do take the required precaution especially for frequent flyers.

What's Up: Please marked your calendar & join us for these activities ok ...

Reporting our 7th Chiang Rai Charity Trip : Jun 27-28

boxed lunch.

27.06 (Sat): The biggest group ever, 16 of us (Aileen, Pansy, Lawrence, Philip, Shane, Simon, Wilfred, Winston, Ng Hock Chuan + his biz associates) went to Wiang Kaen to officiate the opening of Thai Samakee Nursery, which SCOT retrofitted. 8 took the plane, while the rest drove up from Bangkok & Chiang Mai. Weather was threatening with rain but luckily only after the ceremony. Guesthouse was simple but we did have a hard-time getting our shower due to low water pressure & no hot water (as many wanting to shower at the same time lah ...). Sumptuous stewed pork leg was served at dinner time for the hungry crowd after a 'so-so'

28.06 (Sun): We went to Yu Suk Village distributing stuff collected from well-wishers. Beside old clothes & toys, there were lots of brand new goodies; T-shirts (K. Ladda, Stamford Sport Wheels, Actran, F+N & MRC), 1st Aid Kits (Bumrungrad Hospital), Ballpoints (TMB) & Toothbrushes (IDS), umbrellas & medicine, 'kanom' & sweets etc. (Ng Hock Chuan), for the villagers (Kho Khun Mak Mak ka). Our heart-felt TQs to: Tony, Foong, K. Jun & K. Songvoot (KTB) for their cash donation for this trip. Last but not least to those who continuously support & contributed Baht 136k toward this 11th project costing Baht 220k.

It was 'eye-opening' (rolling mountain ranges, beautiful scenery) and great experiences for 1st timers ☺☺
