How we celebrated our National Day at Conrad Hotel on 15th Aug 2009

I week before the event only 40+ registered (panic... so few leh as we guaranteed 50) & finally 63 including 9 children (could have been more if not for the 11 rain checks) came together for the Red & White Tea Party celebrating our Nation's 44th Birthday.

We 'Reached Out' to the pockets of those who came, playing Tikam Tikam, a nostalgic game of the 60s; burning holes in some pockets. Our Pledge was said by all after H.E. Ambassador Peter Chan's speech. Old frens touched base (long time no see) & meeting new frens & speaking Singlish with the lahs & the lehs..... Makan started with long Q at the Laksa Stall (Wilfred brought Si-Hum for this must have dish). We ended the event by playing Bingo Game and raised Baht 12,700 for our Chiang Rai Community Projects.

Many thanks to Pansy, Aileen & TCC Capital Land for sponsoring the game prizes; and special thanks to F+N (Khoo Thiam Hock) for the Magnolia Ice Cream. Last but not least, Florence Tan of Overseas Singaporean Unit for getting us the colorful NDP09 Funpacks as well as the Singapore Day Goodies bags from London.

All left satiated with the good food & goodie bags. Until next year ... see ya ...
