

E-News: Nov 2010

Hi Members & Friends

With 2010 ending, so is our term. Opportunities are now available for those who would like to contribute to the Singaporean community in Thailand to join the EXCO committee. Drop us a line if you are interested.

It was a great turnout for our final Golf Meet of 2010 on 31.10.10 at Kiati Thane. 42 players played in windy & challenging conditions with firm & fast greens. Most scores went North due to the difficult conditions ☹☹. Nonetheless, we enjoyed our games. Thanks for your support + C U next year ☺☺

Been There, Done That: Chulalongkorn Weekend Oct 24-25 in Ratchaburi by Tan Sijia

Kelvin, a novice golfer, was so excited and nervous about his game the night before that he couldn't sleep. Veteran golfer Aileen mentored him on the course (his 2nd game), much to his relief. The "caddie girls" Beatrice and Sijia had a relaxing time, following behind the golfers in a golf buggy, enjoying the scenery and nature (& had monkeys for company). Kayu driver Sijia had a few near misses on the undulating terrain. The party headed for a "night out" in Ratchaburi Town in the evening, strolling along the riverside 'Pasar Malam' and chatting over Kopi and Kueh-Kueh in a Siamese Kopitiam (almost got lost on the way back). After a good night rest, Aileen and Kelvin played another round before the party headed back to Bangkok. En route in Samut Sakorn on Route 35 (KM 69), we stopped to buy 'Som O' & went to this seafood restaurant next to the River Mae Kong for a delicious & inexpensive lunch ☺☺
