Hi Fellow Singaporeans & Frens

A reply from Elections Department for those who are not able to vote on Polling Day 07.05.11

If you are overseas during polling day, you will be unable to vote when you are overseas. You may wish to know that if you are unable to vote on Polling Day, your name will be struck off from the Register of Electors after the election if your constituency is contested. One month after the election, you can apply to have your name restored online via our eServices

<http://www.elections.gov.sg/online.html> using your NRIC number and Singpass, at a nearby Community Centre or Community Club or at the Elections Department Office. If you are able to produce documentary proof that you were overseas on Polling Day, the administrative charge can be waived.

Reporting Labour Day Golf Weekend (Apr 30-May 2) in Rayong

It was a gathering of golfers with their families & frens, 34 in total for a 3 days 2 nite trip to re-charge over the Labour Day Holiday. We had much fun, meeting new frens and reconnecting ties, playing 3 rounds of golf at Silky Oaks (21 players), St Andrews 2000 (15 players) & Wangjantr (16 players). Not only this, as it was harvesting season, we had durians etc. along the way as well as sumptuous seafood next to the beach at Romson (Ban Chang) & Mom Aroy (Siracha). Some just came to play without staying. Cheers ☺☺☺
